

Vow Examples

The vows are the most magical part of a wedding ceremony. There are numerous options of how they are done, and usually take one of following forms:

- Recited statements and promises (each of you read your own vows)
- Repeated lines (each of you take it in turns to repeat the lines offered by the celebrant)
- Questions and response (simplest options that requires only an 'I do' from you both)

Here are a few examples to consider and get your creative juices running if you wish to write your own.
